Merry Christmas!

Now that we have stuffed ourselves full of turkey and stood in line for countless hours trying to get the best deals on Black Friday (which now apparently starts on Thursday), it's time to hunker down and get ready for the December holidays!

So whether you celebrate Christmas, Chanukah, Yule, Kwanzaa, Festivus or none of the above, we at MTCC and Manti Telephone would like to wish you a very Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays!

We would also like to take the opportunity to thank you all for another great year! Our customers are the reason we are here. We appreciate your business and we look forward to serving you in the coming New Year!

Family Event Internet Packages

Just in time for the Holidays!

Does your Internet slow down when your family gets together?

All those extra devices (laptops, smartphones, tablets, gaming consoles, etc.) can eat up your bandwidth fast, causing your Internet to slow down. Don't worry! We're here to help! With our new Family Event Packages, you can now temporarily bump up your Internet speed while your family is here, and then bump back down to your normal speed after they're gone.

The cost of our Family Event Packages is minimal ($5, $8, or $12 depending on the speed you are bumping from and to), and the upgrade lasts for 5 days. If you need longer, you can simply extend your upgrade by another 5 day package. It's that easy!

If you're expecting company for the Holidays, let us know and we can get you signed up for one of Family Event Packages today!

Yes, Virginia,
there is a
Santa Claus

Yes, Virginia...

Eight-year-old Virginia O'Hanlon wrote a letter to the editor of New York's Sun, and the quick response was printed as an unsigned editorial Sept. 21, 1897. The work of veteran newsman Francis Pharcellus Church has since become history's most reprinted newspaper editorial, appearing in part or whole in dozens of languages in books, movies, and other editorials, and on posters and stamps.

DEAR EDITOR: I am 8 years old.
Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus.
Papa says, 'If you see it in THE SUN it's so.'
Please tell me the truth; is there a Santa Claus?

VIRGINIA O'HANLON.
115 WEST NINETY-FIFTH STREET.

VIRGINIA, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe except they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's, are little. In this great universe of ours man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole of truth and knowledge.

Yes, VIRGINIA, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! How dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus. It would be as dreary as if there were no VIRGINIAS. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but that's no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders there are unseen and unseeable in the world.

You may tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man, nor even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived, could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside that curtain and view and picture the supernal beauty and glory beyond. Is it all real? Ah, VIRGINIA, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

No Santa Claus! Thank God! He lives, and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay, ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.
