

Mac Mail Server Changes

Go to the email app

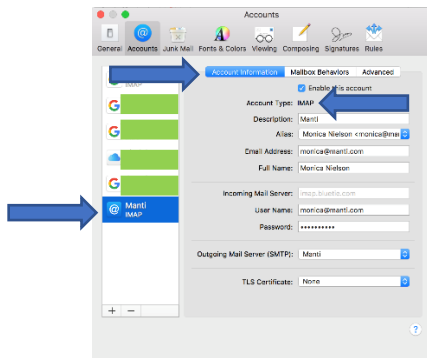

Click on “Mail” then “Preferences”

Click on your mail.manti.com account

Click “Account Information”

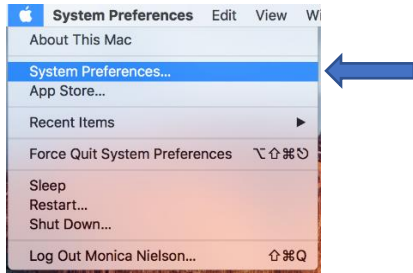

Notice “Account Type”

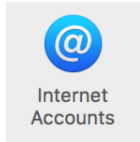

A. If “Incoming Mail Server” is grayed out proceed as follows, otherwise skip to B.

Click on the “System Preferences” icon or click the apple in the upper left corner and click on “System Preferences”

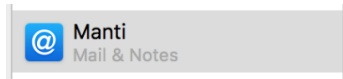

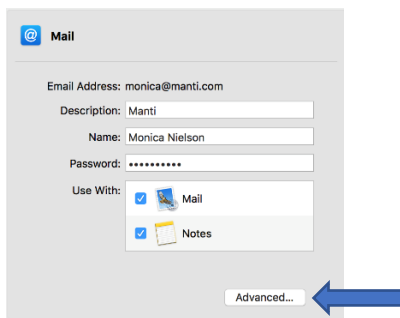

Click on “Internet Accounts”

Select your mail.manti.com account

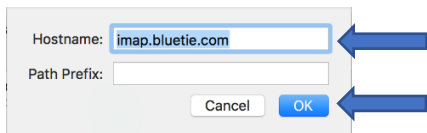

Click on “Advanced...”

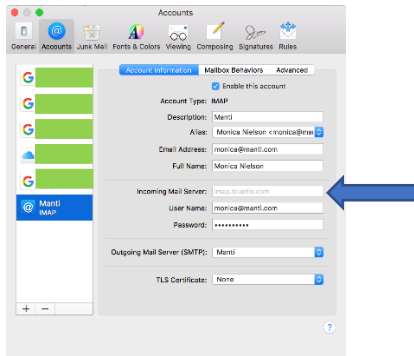

In the “Hostname:” field, type “imap.bluetie.com” or “pop.bluetie.com” (depends on your personal email settings)

Click “OK”

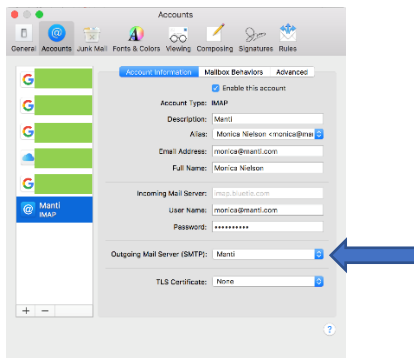

- A. If you did A, skip to C
- B. Change “Incoming Mail Server” to “imap.bluetie.com” or “pop.bluetie.com”
(Make sure you are in your mail.manti.com account)

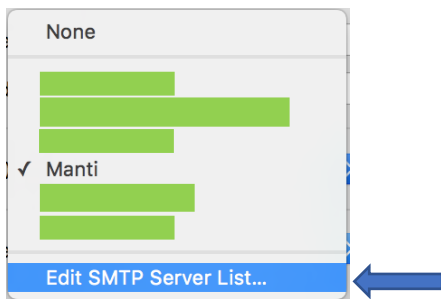

C.

Under “Outgoing Mail Server (SMTP):” click the dropdown arrows

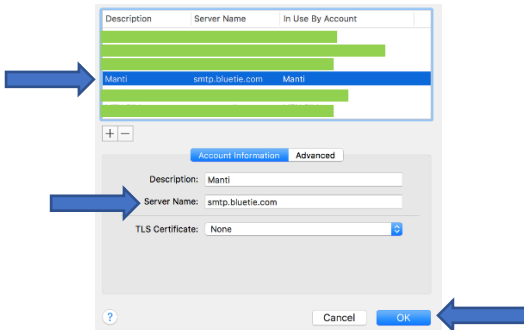

Select “Edit SMTP Server List...”

Select your mail.manti.com account

Change Server Name to “smtp.bluetie.com”

Click “OK”

Click “Advanced”

Port is “587”

Uncheck “Use SSL”

Click “OK”

